

1-5 The Liverpool City Region Tourism Awards in association with Liverpool ONE took place last week. A total of 18 awards were handed out, including: Bar of the Year: the Wro (1); Best Newcomer to the Visitor Economy: the Shankly hotel (2); Excellence in Business Tourism: Titanic hotel (3); Hotel of the Year: Titanic hotel (4); and Guest Accommodation of the Year: Mere Brook House (5).

6 Two-Michelin-starred chef Sat Bains inspired a group of 40 young hospitality students during a talk at West Nottingham College.

7 Pizza restaurant chain Zizzi's shared some pizza art for Stand Up To Cancer.

8-9 A group of unemployed young people from London have completed the first Greene King and Prince's Trust Get into Hospitality programme. A celebration took place at the George pub in Southwark, where 16 people received certificates. Pictured are Will Ward and his 'buddy', general manager David Redpath (8), and Greene King and Prince's Trust students (9).

10-13 The spring/summer menu at the London Hilton on Park Lane's restaurant and bar, Podium, includes scallops and cucumber (10), smoked duck (11), teriyaki salmon (12) and pecan brownie and mandarin jelly (13).

Keep up with The Caterer on Instagram (@TheCaterermag) and Vine (@caterertweets)

Want to see your photos here?

Email katherine.alano@thecaterer.com

www.thecaterer.com